Citizens' Committee Will Secure $30,000 for Railroad Y. M. C. A. Before End of June.

Members of the citizens' committee of the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association started the canvass yes-terday for the $10,000 which is needed to complete the new building on East Main Street. A committee of 100 citi-zens has volunteered its services, tho members taking turns, as their busi-ness normits is collective the members taking turns, as their business permits, in collecting the money. The campaign is being directed by Mr. S. L. Thomas, secretary of the association, who will be in the head-quarters each day until the amount is raised.

When completed, at a cost of $100,000, the building will be one of the largest and best equipped in the South. The $60,000 collected before the work was begun was sufficient to creek the walls begun was sufficient to creek the walls.
